
LEARNING DEVELOPMENT OFFICE
presents

EXCELLENCE in TEACHING

A Workshop for Faculty

Designing More Effective Instruction

When-

December 10th 7-9 pm
11th 9-4:30
12th 9-3:30

Where-

CAMPUS CENTER
Loyola Campus
Concordia U.

The workshop will cover four main areas:

1. Principles & Practices of Designing Instruction ~

Insights on learning
Planning for a whole course, a single class, a cluster of classes
Teacher-centred designs, learner-centred designs
Sequence of timing
Specifying level of performance
Assessing, evaluating course outcomes, learnings.

2. Designing for Motivation ~

Psychological factors, 'problem students', barriers.

3. Teaching Styles ~ Awareness of one's own style.

4. Problem-Solving ~ Alternatives to include in your own design.

METHOD

Mini-lectures, demonstrations
Small group and individual periods.

ENROLLMENT

Limited to 25 faculty members
Contact Learning Development Office - local 397 for reservation and/or additional information.

Resource Person »

BOB WEILE is a part time faculty member of the University of Toronto. His past work related experience includes coordinator of the Provincial Institute of Leadership Development Programs for the Ontario Government, Director of Continuing Education for the Ontario Association of Architects, Coordinator of Curriculum Development and Instructional Training for the National Coaching Development Program, immediate past president of the Ontario Association for Continuing Education.
